LIFE

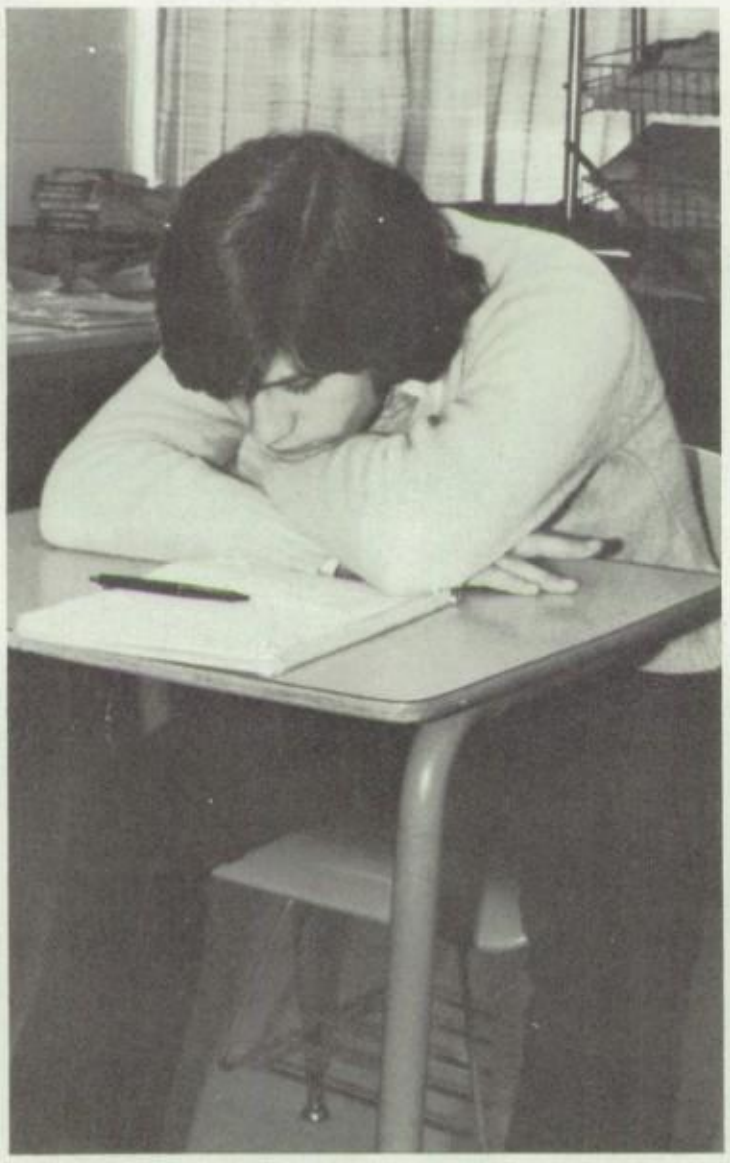
Hitting The Books

The major part of a student's day is made up of studying. At Marian this is especially evident. Students are seen camped out in front of lockers in the mornings with their books, listening attentively in class, studying diligently in study hall during the day, and laden with books as they leave for home. But is there life after studying? The typical Marian student is usually found heaving a sigh of relief at 3:18 and rushing to participate in one of the many extra-curricular activities offered. Whether this activity is a sport, the band, drama, or just hanging out on the steps, it provides a welcome break between the school day and homework. Hitting the books, combined with some leisure activity, is a way of life at Marian.

Keith Spreybrook is "caught in the act" of studying.



Mike Perron studies enthusiastically.

Student Council Inauguration; NHS Induction

The Marian Community celebrates Mass.

Class and Student Council officers recognized.

At a Mass for the whole student body, Student Council officers and members were inaugurated and class officers were recognized. The Student Council this year is led by Mary Beth Rittenhouse, aided by Vice President Mike O'connor, Secretary Kelly Sullivan and Treasurer Brian Anselman.

On November 8, 28 new members were inducted into the Marian chapter of the National Honor Society. Guest speaker for the event was Mr. Richard Rosenthal. NHS members and their parents were honored at a reception.

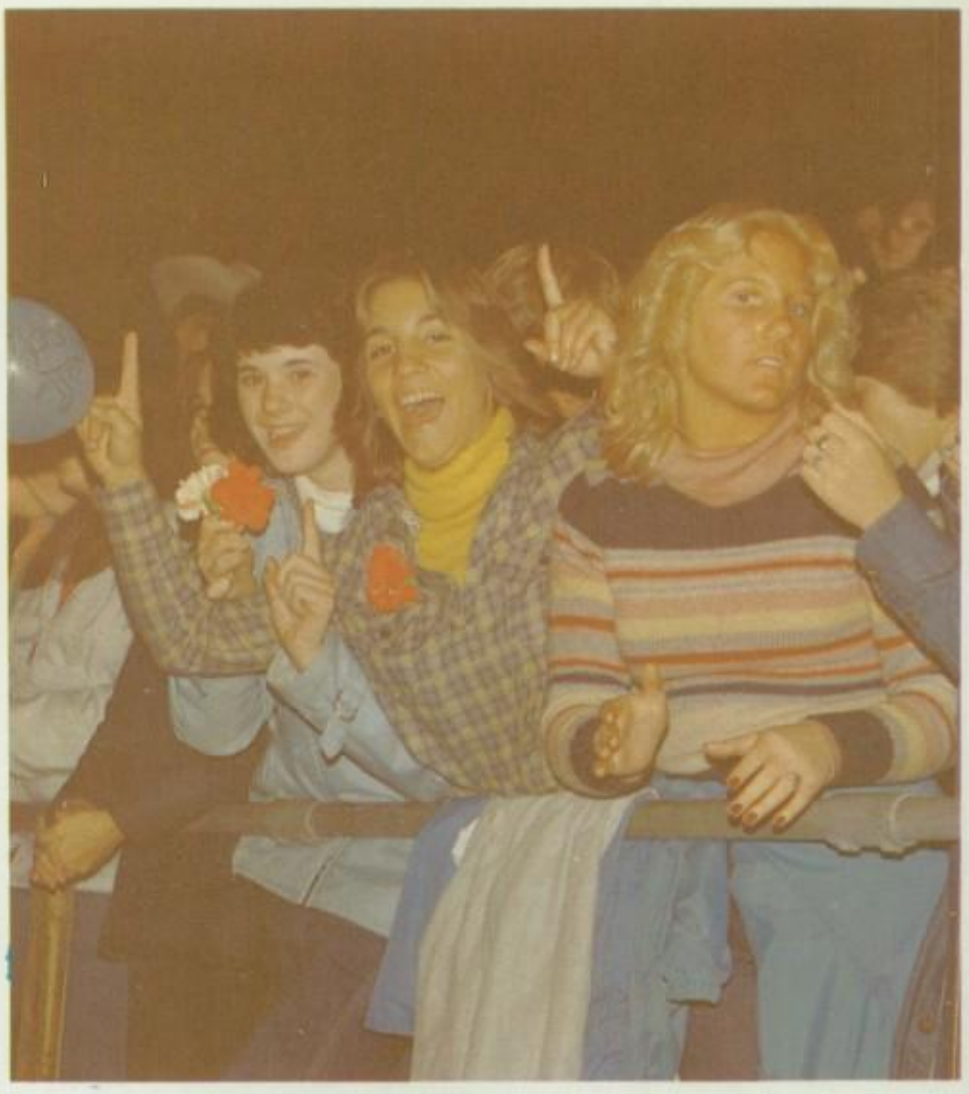
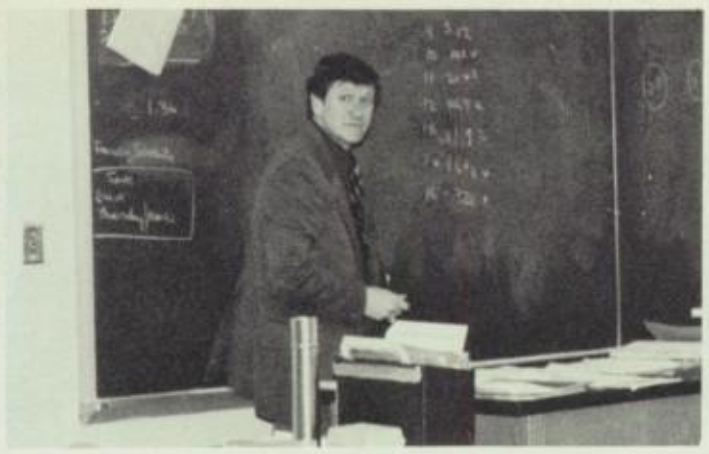
Up Close And Colorful



Teachers



Not all teachers are alike and not all are equally likeable. Still, every teacher at Marian has a goal he or she fulfills—to foster intellectual and spiritual growth among the students of Marian.

A teacher does more than stand in front of a class and lecture. He or she becomes a student's advisor and disciplinarian, sometimes his coach, and often his friend.

Decorations were coordinated by Lisa George and Julie Weinkauff. The students danced enthusiastically to the music of "Low Tide". The dancers took time off to enjoy mints and punch. Formal pictures were taken so the students would remember the evening.

First place awards were given in the following categories: Best Comedy Act, awarded to the F.C.C. for "Oh Lookie"; Best Serious Act, won by Mike Perron and Virginia West—original guitar and verse; Most Outrageous Act, awarded to Tom Schwob for his impersonation of comedian Steve Martin. Music At Its Best

The choir sings at Mass.

The liturgy in song.

Who can imagine a pep rally without the school song or a concert without music? What would Marian be without our spirited bands and pom-pom corps? Mr. Ted Lilly conducted the bands to another fine year with ever-improving music and performances. The bands gave more than a dozen concerts this year. Highlighting these concerts were performances by Joe Walz, Pete Witczak and Pat Waldron, among others.

This year, a special liturgical music group was formed under the direction of Mr. Jeff Noonan. Along with the chorus, they sang at most school masses. The pom-pom, flag and rifle squads were helped by Miss Mary Klaybor. The rifle corps was a new addition to the marching band this year. For music at its best, whether it be in the marching, concert, liturgical or jazz band, Marian High School is the place to be.

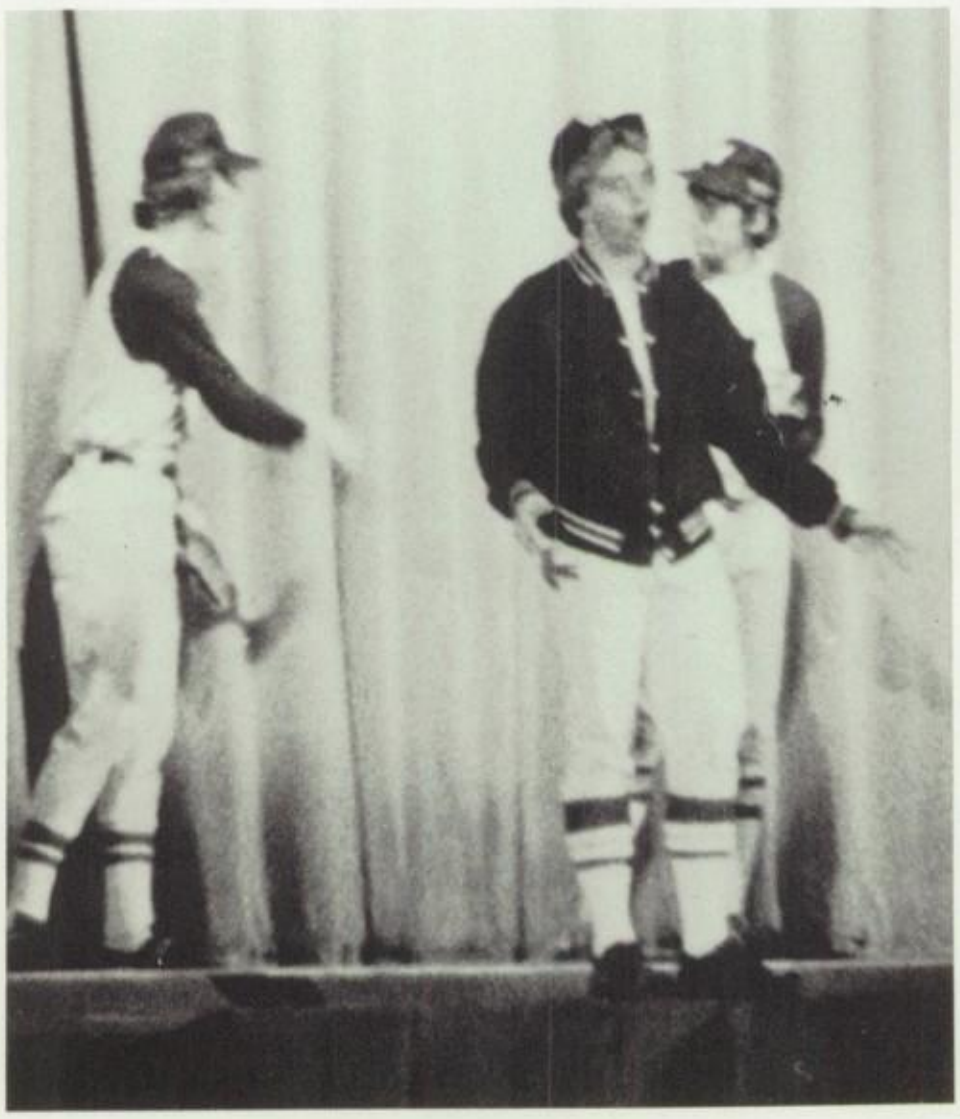
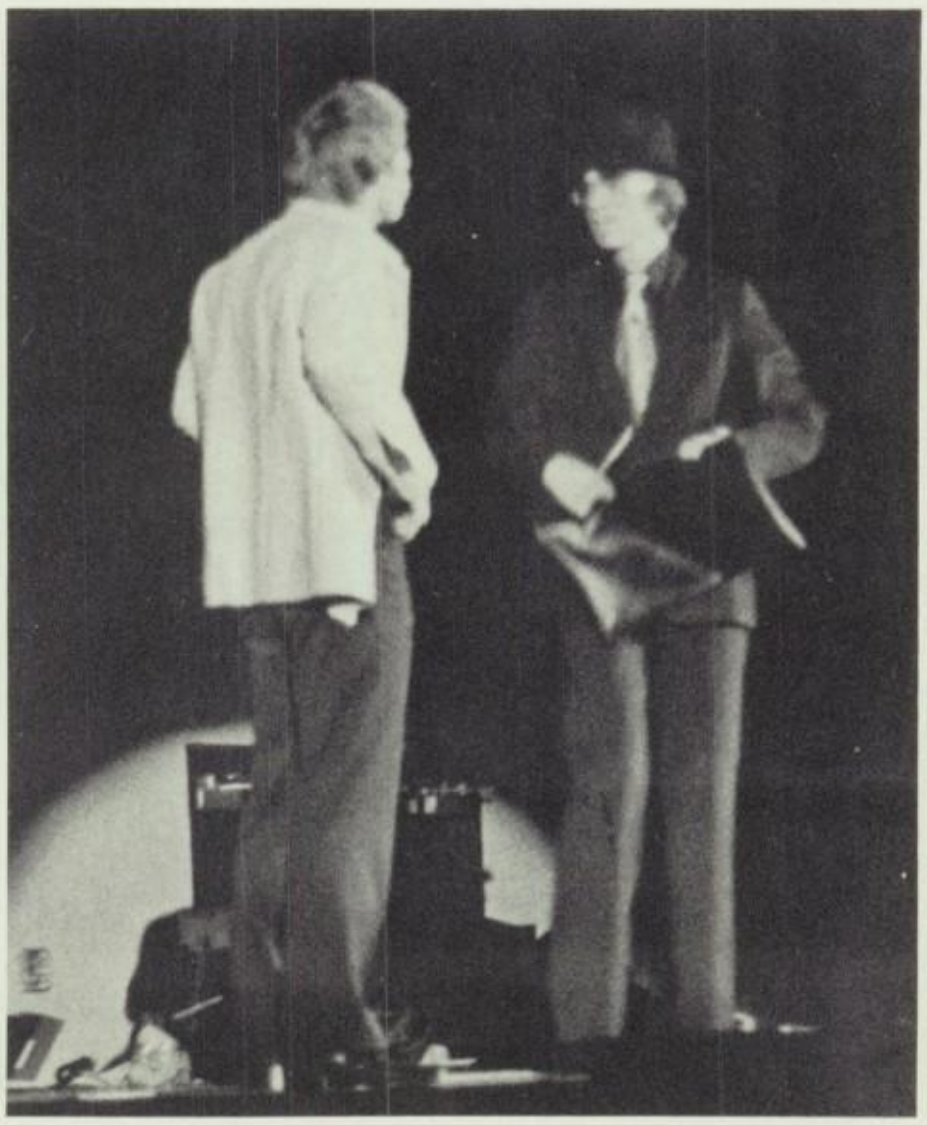
A True Touch Of Broadway

"Damn Yankees"



This year, under the combined talents of the Marian Drama and Music Departments, Marian presented "Damn Yankees!" as the spring musical. It starred Tim McCaffery as Joe Boyd, Mary Anne Albaugh as Meg Boyd, Tom Black as Joe Hardy, Brad Bogaert as Applegate, Angie Wolfe as Lola, and Deb Peters as Gloria Thorpe. In supporting roles were Heidi Rosenbaum, Maria Veldman, Charlie Sonneborn, Brian Anselman, Anne Smessaert, Mary Anne Daher, Denise Durham, Tim Shea, Mark Kolodziej, Mike O'Connor, Joe Fischer, and Bruce Lengacher.

The story involves Joe Boyd, a middle-aged man, who sells his soul to the devil (Applegate) so that the Washington Senators will win the pennant. Applegate transforms him into a handsome young home-run hitter who in 1 month, pulls the Senators from last place in the league to contenders for the pennant. The production was directed by Mr. Robert Van Goey. Music was provided by the choir and pit orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Ted Lilly.



Unguarded Moments

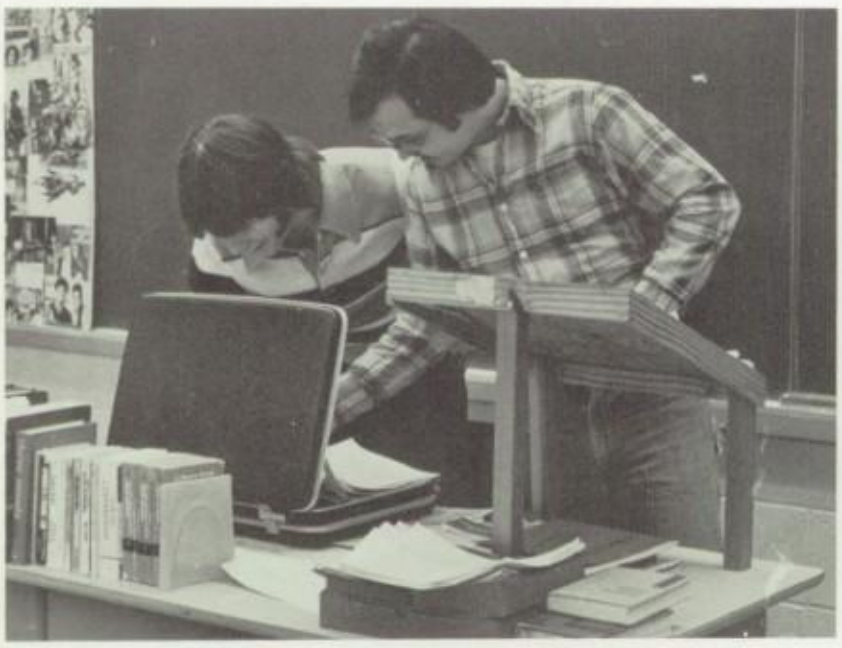
"Now, Larry, you couldn't have overslept again!"

"If King Arthur could do it, why can't I?"



"Put it back in the brown paper bag, Larry."

"If anyone passes I'll eat my words."

"I'm not sleeping, simply meditating."

Could you repeat the joke for Fr. Mel.?

Athletes Honored At Sports

Winter MVPs: L. Banes—G. Swimming, J. Willamowski—B. Swimming, T. Prister—Basketball.

Athletics are a very important part of Marian. Over 60% of the student body participates in varsity and club sports. These students were honored at fall, winter and spring assemblies as well as the traditional springs awards banquet.

Speaker for the banquet was Marian and N.D. grad Nick DeCicco. Emcee was Joe Yonto. The banquet was highlighted by films of Notre Dame's 1977-78 championship season and Cotton Bowl championship. The banquet gave all the coaches an opportunity to speak about their seasons and to praise individuals.

Scott Foldenauer accepts his MA award.

Joe Rice is most Improved in hockey.

Larry Kubsch receives his letter.

Judy Gruber wins her letter in Softball.

Students Lauded For Academics

On May 24, 1978, Marian's scholars were honored at an evening awards presentation. The ceremony, featuring Col. Jack Stephens—Ass't. N.D. Athletic Director—as main speaker, is an annual event to recognize the academic achievements of the students. Valedictorian and Salutatorian trophies were presented to Peggy Moran and Kevin Kruggel, respectively, while Monica Morin was awarded the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award. Bill Baker and Mary Rice were named as All-Around Students, with Rice receiving the Leadership Award. Pete Witczak was given the John Philip Sousa Award for Music. Numerous departmental citations were awarded to underclassmen as well as seniors.

GRADUATION

The class of 1978 was graduated from Marian on May 26. Graduation ceremonies were preceded by the Baccalaureate Mass at St. Matthew's Cathedral on May 25. The Mass was celebrated by Bishop William McManus and area parish priests. The homily for the Mass was given by Bill Schooler, chaplain at Marian. The Graduation ceremonies were held in the school gymnasium.

Dr. Roland Chamblee, a prominent South Bend physician, was the major speaker. He stressed the need for young people to be firm in their convictions and to speak out for what is right.

The class was presented by sponsors Yvonne Foss and Sydney Dunphy and awarded diplomas by Fr. James Seculoff. Out of 150 seniors, two were graduated with highest honors, and 15 with high honors. As a gift to the school, the class endowed a full tuition scholarship for an incoming freshman.

Knights Debut In Class AAA

The Knight football team was victorious in its first year in Class AAA with 8 wins and 2 losses. The defeats were to Chesterton and a Marion team anxious to avenge its 1976 loss to the Knights.

Coach Hecklinski felt the high point of the season was the victory over St. Joe. Some of the defensive players who came through during that game and all season were linebacker Durell Freeze and safety Marty McManus. Seniors Bub Meersman and Greg Fahey also performed well again this year.

Offensively, Bob Ladyga was successful returning kickoffs. Dan Durham established himself at center as did Mike Kolodziej at guard. It was the last year for 3-year receivers Mike Frisoni and Juan Guzman.

Senior tri-captain Val Trinkley was injured in the first game of the season. He was replaced by John Murphy who also hit hard.

Six players were chosen for the Northern Indiana Catholic Alliance Team. These were: Bill Baker and Gary Haynes—offensive backs; Bob Gnoth—middle guard; Jerry Kostielney—deep back; Tom Murphy—offensive tackle; and Chris Ray—linebacker.

The major awards voted for by the team were: Bill Baker—Most Valuable Player and Most Valuable Back; Rob Crook—Most Improved; Bob Gnoth—Most Valuable Defensive Lineman; Jerry Kostielney—Most Valuable Defensive Back; and Chris Ray—Most Valuable Offensive Lineman and "Head Hunter."

The honors were not restricted just to the players. Indiana named Coach Hecklinski as its candidate for the National High School Coach of the Year. He stated that the season was highly gratifying and that his players had "played over and above their potential" giving 110% in every game.

The B-team, coached by Don Monhaut, finished their season at 2-2. Coach Monhaut felt his team did a good job although there were only 14 boys on the team. They were seldom able to practice together as a unit. Organization took place on the bus trips to the games. Mr. Monhaut believes the B-team players will be a great help to the varsity next year.

Harriers Plagued By Injuries

"The refusal to quit" best characterizes the Marian cross country team. Though finishing with a record of 3-11, the Knights showed strength for the future.

Coach Rethlake commented, "We were a young team and in contention. We needed more depth, especially after the injury of Phil Wendowski. With hard work and self-discipline from the runners, I'm looking forward to next year."

Phil Wendowski, though injured much of the season, earned the MVP honors. Joe Rice earned the MIP award and Scott Foldenaur was the MA winner. The team finished well, winning the last two meets and making a strong showing in the N.D. Invitational. Next year, with all but co-captains Kevin Kruggel and Kirk Tepe and Senior Mary Rice returning, the team will be strong competition for any opponent.

Keszei & Ashton Place In Sectionals

Coach Jim Ignaut's grapplers finished with a 4-6 slate. This record fails to show the hard work and discipline of the wrestlers.

Outstanding performances were given by senior Phil Ashton, who took 2nd in the sectionals, and senior Pat Keszei, who was the sectional and regional champion and placed 2nd in the semi-state. In the Portage Holiday Tourney, Art Simon, Dan Floran and Ashton each placed 2nd, while Keszei finished 1st. Ashton also took 1st and Keszei wrestled to a 2nd during the Bremen Tourney.

This year's awards went to Al Lawrence for Most Improved and Don Oedederk for Mental Attitude.

Coach Ignaut was happy to see the number of wrestlers out for the sport. He believed the underclassmen gained valuable experience competing on the varsity squad.

Aquaknights Improve: Boys And Girls

The boys' swim team, led by first-year coach Jim DeVreese, posted a 4-6 record this year. Captain Bill Hogan, breaststroker John Willamowski, backstroker Bob Goerke, and diver Mark Kolodziej all turned in strong performances. Goerke and Willamowski each set a school record in his specialty and narrowly missed qualifying for state. In addition, Willamowski received the team's Most Valuable and Mental Attitude awards. The Most Improved Swimmer was exchange student Javier Guerrero. Next year's Aquaknights face a rebuilding year centered around Goerke, distance freestyler Jim Doran and breaststroker Jim Tschida.

The Aquaknights were led by co-cptains Mareen Toepp, a backstroker and freestyle specialist, and Vanessa Milroy who swam butterfly and freestyle and was the Mental Attitude winner. Outstanding performers included MVP Laurie Banes, a freestyle sprinter, and frosh Janet Greer who set school records in the 500 free and the 200 I.M. Mary Rice helped the team to two 4th place finishes in the Sectionals. Besides her ribbon in 100 Breast, she shared one in the 400 Free Relay with Sue Call, Vanessa Milroy and Janet Greer. Most Improved honors for the season went to Jennifer Michalski. The outlook for the team's next season is bright even though four seniors, including diver Patty Thompson, will be graduated.

Coach Davidson was satisfied by the performance of his team, especially with the way they responded to the pressure of playing in the South Bend Holiday Tourney. Award winners for the Knights were Joe Rosenthal M.V.P.; Mike Horth—M.I.P.; and John Curran—MA.

The Freshman Basketball Team, coached by Steve Rethlake, didn't have a banner season but hopes are high for the future. Coach Rethlake had a lot of height on his squad this year, but injuries and bad weather hampered the season. Awards winners were: Des Scnellinger—MA; Perry Baert—MIP; and Joel Goossens—MVP. Coach Rethlake's squad ended their season at 2-13.

Baseball Team Wins 17

Although hampered by curtailed indoor practices and six cancelled games, the baseball team finished with a 17-8 record. After a strong summer season, the team performed well in the spring. Coach Karasiak was especially proud of a surprise victory over state-ranked and undefeated St. Joe. The Knight baseball team was characterized by a tight defense, clutch batters and fine team unity. The team was led by MVP Tim Prister, the Yates brothers (Dave and Joe) and John Downs on the mound. Coach Karasiak commented that Joe Yates did "a fine job pitching for a Sophomore." The outfield of Greg Ackard, Dave Yates and the Hamann brothers (Mike and Dave) accounted for only one error in season play. Strong infield play from Juniors Larry Lackner, Brian Cira, Ron Prusinski and a recovered Todd Midla completed the unit. The team was hurt by the loss of three starters before sectionals. Award winners were MVP—Tim Prister; MA—Jerry Kostielney (catcher); and MIP—Brian Cira.

Golfers Gain Experience

The 1978 edition of Marian golf reached its goal of a winning season. Coach Davidson felt that his last year coaching at Marian was very gratifying. Surging interest in the sport was exemplified by the large turnout for tryouts. The entire squad was composed of juniors and underclassmen. Next year the team will be very strong with all members returning having gained valuable experience.

Award winners for the golfers were: MVP—John Inwood; MIP—Andy Bauer; MA—Bryan Piekarski.

Softball Team Looks To Next Year

The softball team, in its second year of varsity play, slugged its way to four wins though hurt by foul weather and inexperience. Through the season, the players gained valuable experience and learned to play as a cohesive unit. Promising players for '79 include freshman Mary Wernsing, Deb Prusinski and Cheryl Panting as well as returning upperclassmen.

The team was coached by Janet Klausing and two assistants—Dan Berry and Greg Loughridge. Outstanding senior players were Judy Gruber, Cindy Crennell, Mary Murphy and Mary Beth Hosinski. Award winners were: MVP—Mary Beth Hosinski; MA—Maureen Toepp; MIP—Cami Slaby.

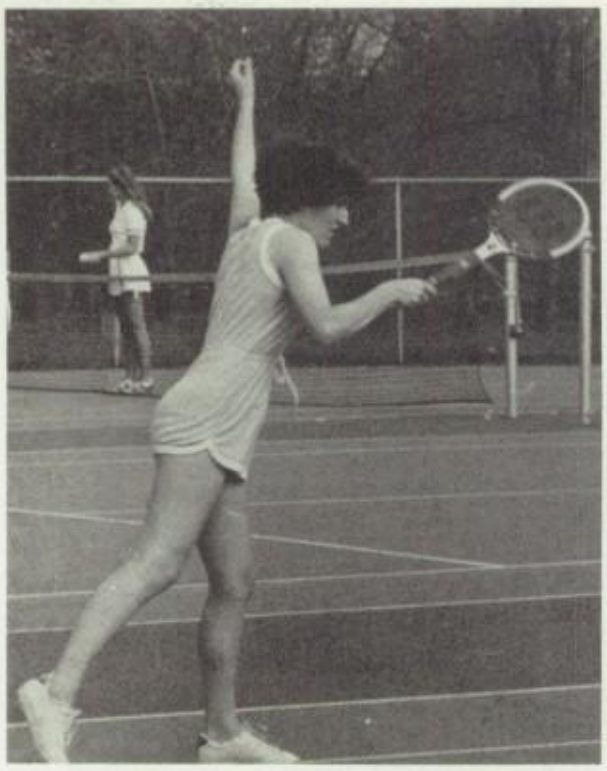
Netters Keep Stroking



Fran Willson finishes her stroke.

The girls' tennis team braved freezing and rainy weather to finish the season with a 4-8 record. Coach Sydney Dunphy commented, "I felt we should have won more than we did." Many problems forced Coach Dunphy to continually shift players' positions.

Fran Willson was No. 1 again this season while Mary Baele claimed the No. 2 spot. The 3rd and 4th positions were dominated by Jamie Goossens and Cathy Bauer. Battling for 5th were Kathy Hornbeck and Karen Peil. The 1st doubles team was Liz Kloska and Lisa George with the 2nd doubles team being Madeline Garvey and Laura Gonderman.

Willson finished 4th in sectional play and Baele finished 5th. Awards went to Willson for Most Valuable, Goossens for Mental Attitude and George for Most Improved.

Coach Dunphy believes there is a great team coming up for next year. Other players who are sure to be assets are sophs Sue Call, Julie Weinkauf and frosh Patty Holbrook, Beth Miller and Laura Pfeil.

Underclassmen Aid Girls' Track

Bolstered by strong underclassmen, the girls' track team compiled an 8-3 record. This team was the strongest in recent years due to the number of girls participating in the sport. The distance runners proved to be the strength of the squad as Janet Greer and Sue Rogan consistently took firsts, placed 3rd and 4th, respectively, in the mile at sectionals and qualified for the regionals. Sprinters Vicki Kuzmic and Patti Hammes were consistent point scorers for the Knights, as were Colleen McMahon (co-capt.), Anne Rice and Jane Batchlor. Award winners were: Colleen McMahon (440 and hurdles)—MVP and MA; Patti Hammes—MIP. Losing only four seniors to graduation Coach DeVreese feels the squad will be very competitive next year.

The National Honor Society was active in many projects. Members were responsible for the marquee, tutoring, and sponsoring a dance. Among the biggest undertakings were Bingo parties given for residents of Ridgedale and Golden Age nursing homes. With only a month's hasty planning, the N.H.S. and the F.C.C. co-sponsored and successfully revived Las Vegas Night.

The Student Council's big accomplishment was its sponsorship of the Midwinter Formal. The success of the dance ensures its continuation. The Student Council also sponsored a euchre tournament, promoted a non-smoking day on behalf of the American Cancer Society, reinstated Spirit Day into the school calendar, and participated in Las Vegas Night.

Once a yearbook is finished, it is easy to forget the hours of time spent putting it together and the many people who put in those hours. I'd like to thank the following people for their invaluable assistance: Mrs. Bauters, Mrs. Sullivan, and Mrs. Hawkins for their administrative help; All the teachers and maintenance people for unlocking the yearbook room; Sr. Michaelann for her help—especially in identifying faces and putting up with us; Mr. Derald Ailes, our patient yearbook representative; and Mr. King—thanks for developing our pictures, especially those at deadline time.

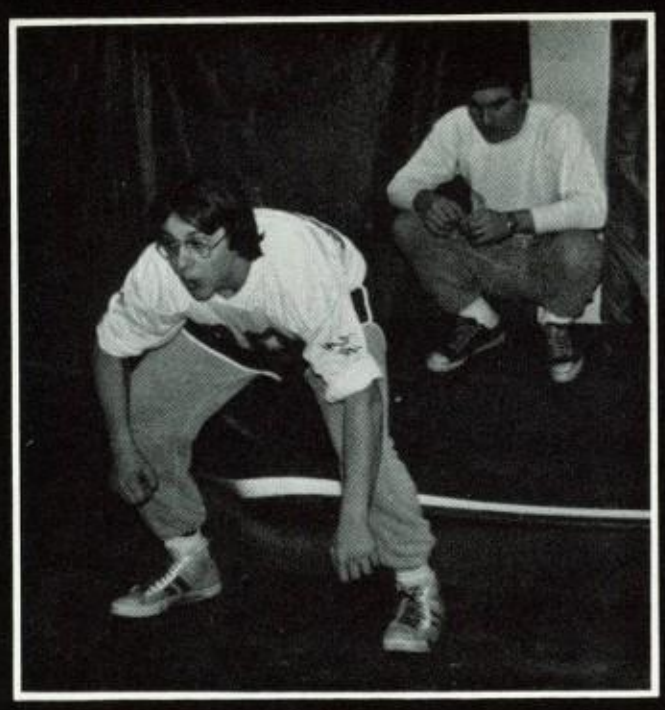
On the staff, I wish to thank the following people: Mary Beth Hosinski, Julie Weinkauf, and Judy Gruber—for all their work and support; Jerry Kostielney—for taking and developing half the pictures in this book; Mary Murphy—for her imaginative ideas that saved the day; and Lisa George, my assistant editor, whose artistic flair is obvious throughout the book.

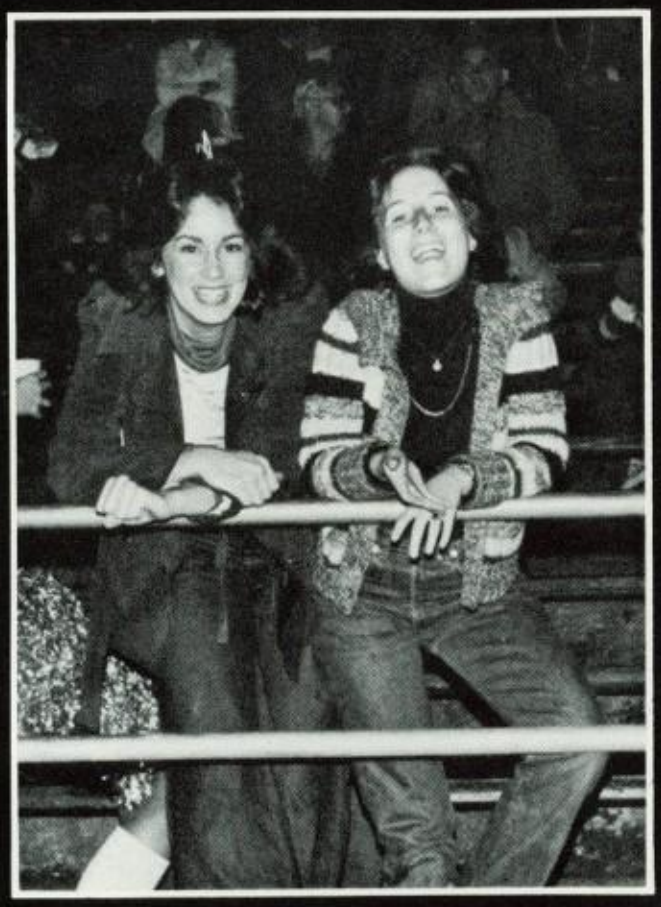
I must also say thanks to my family for everyone's help and patience with me.

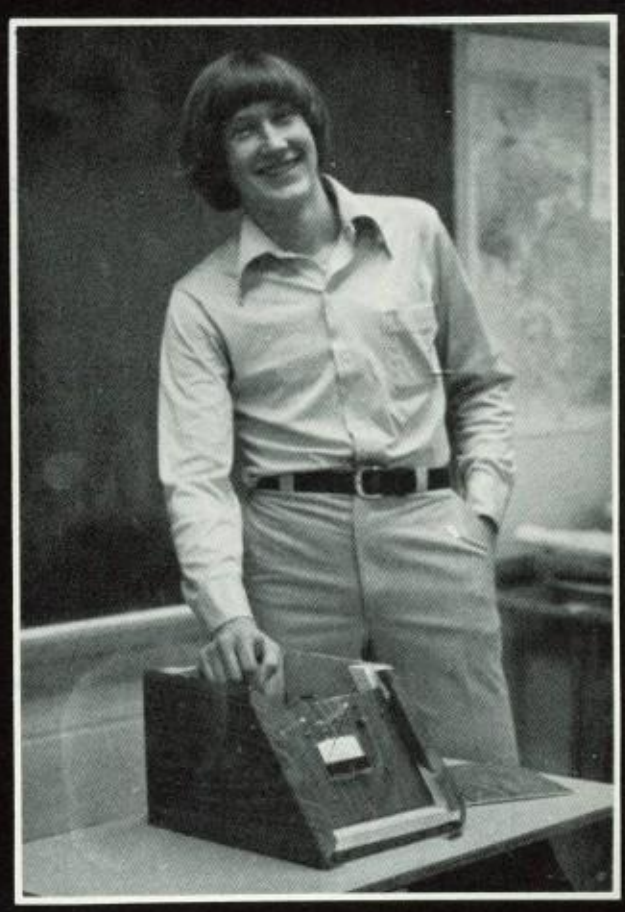
To all our advertisers, patrons and anyone who helped in any way at all—I'm deeply grateful.

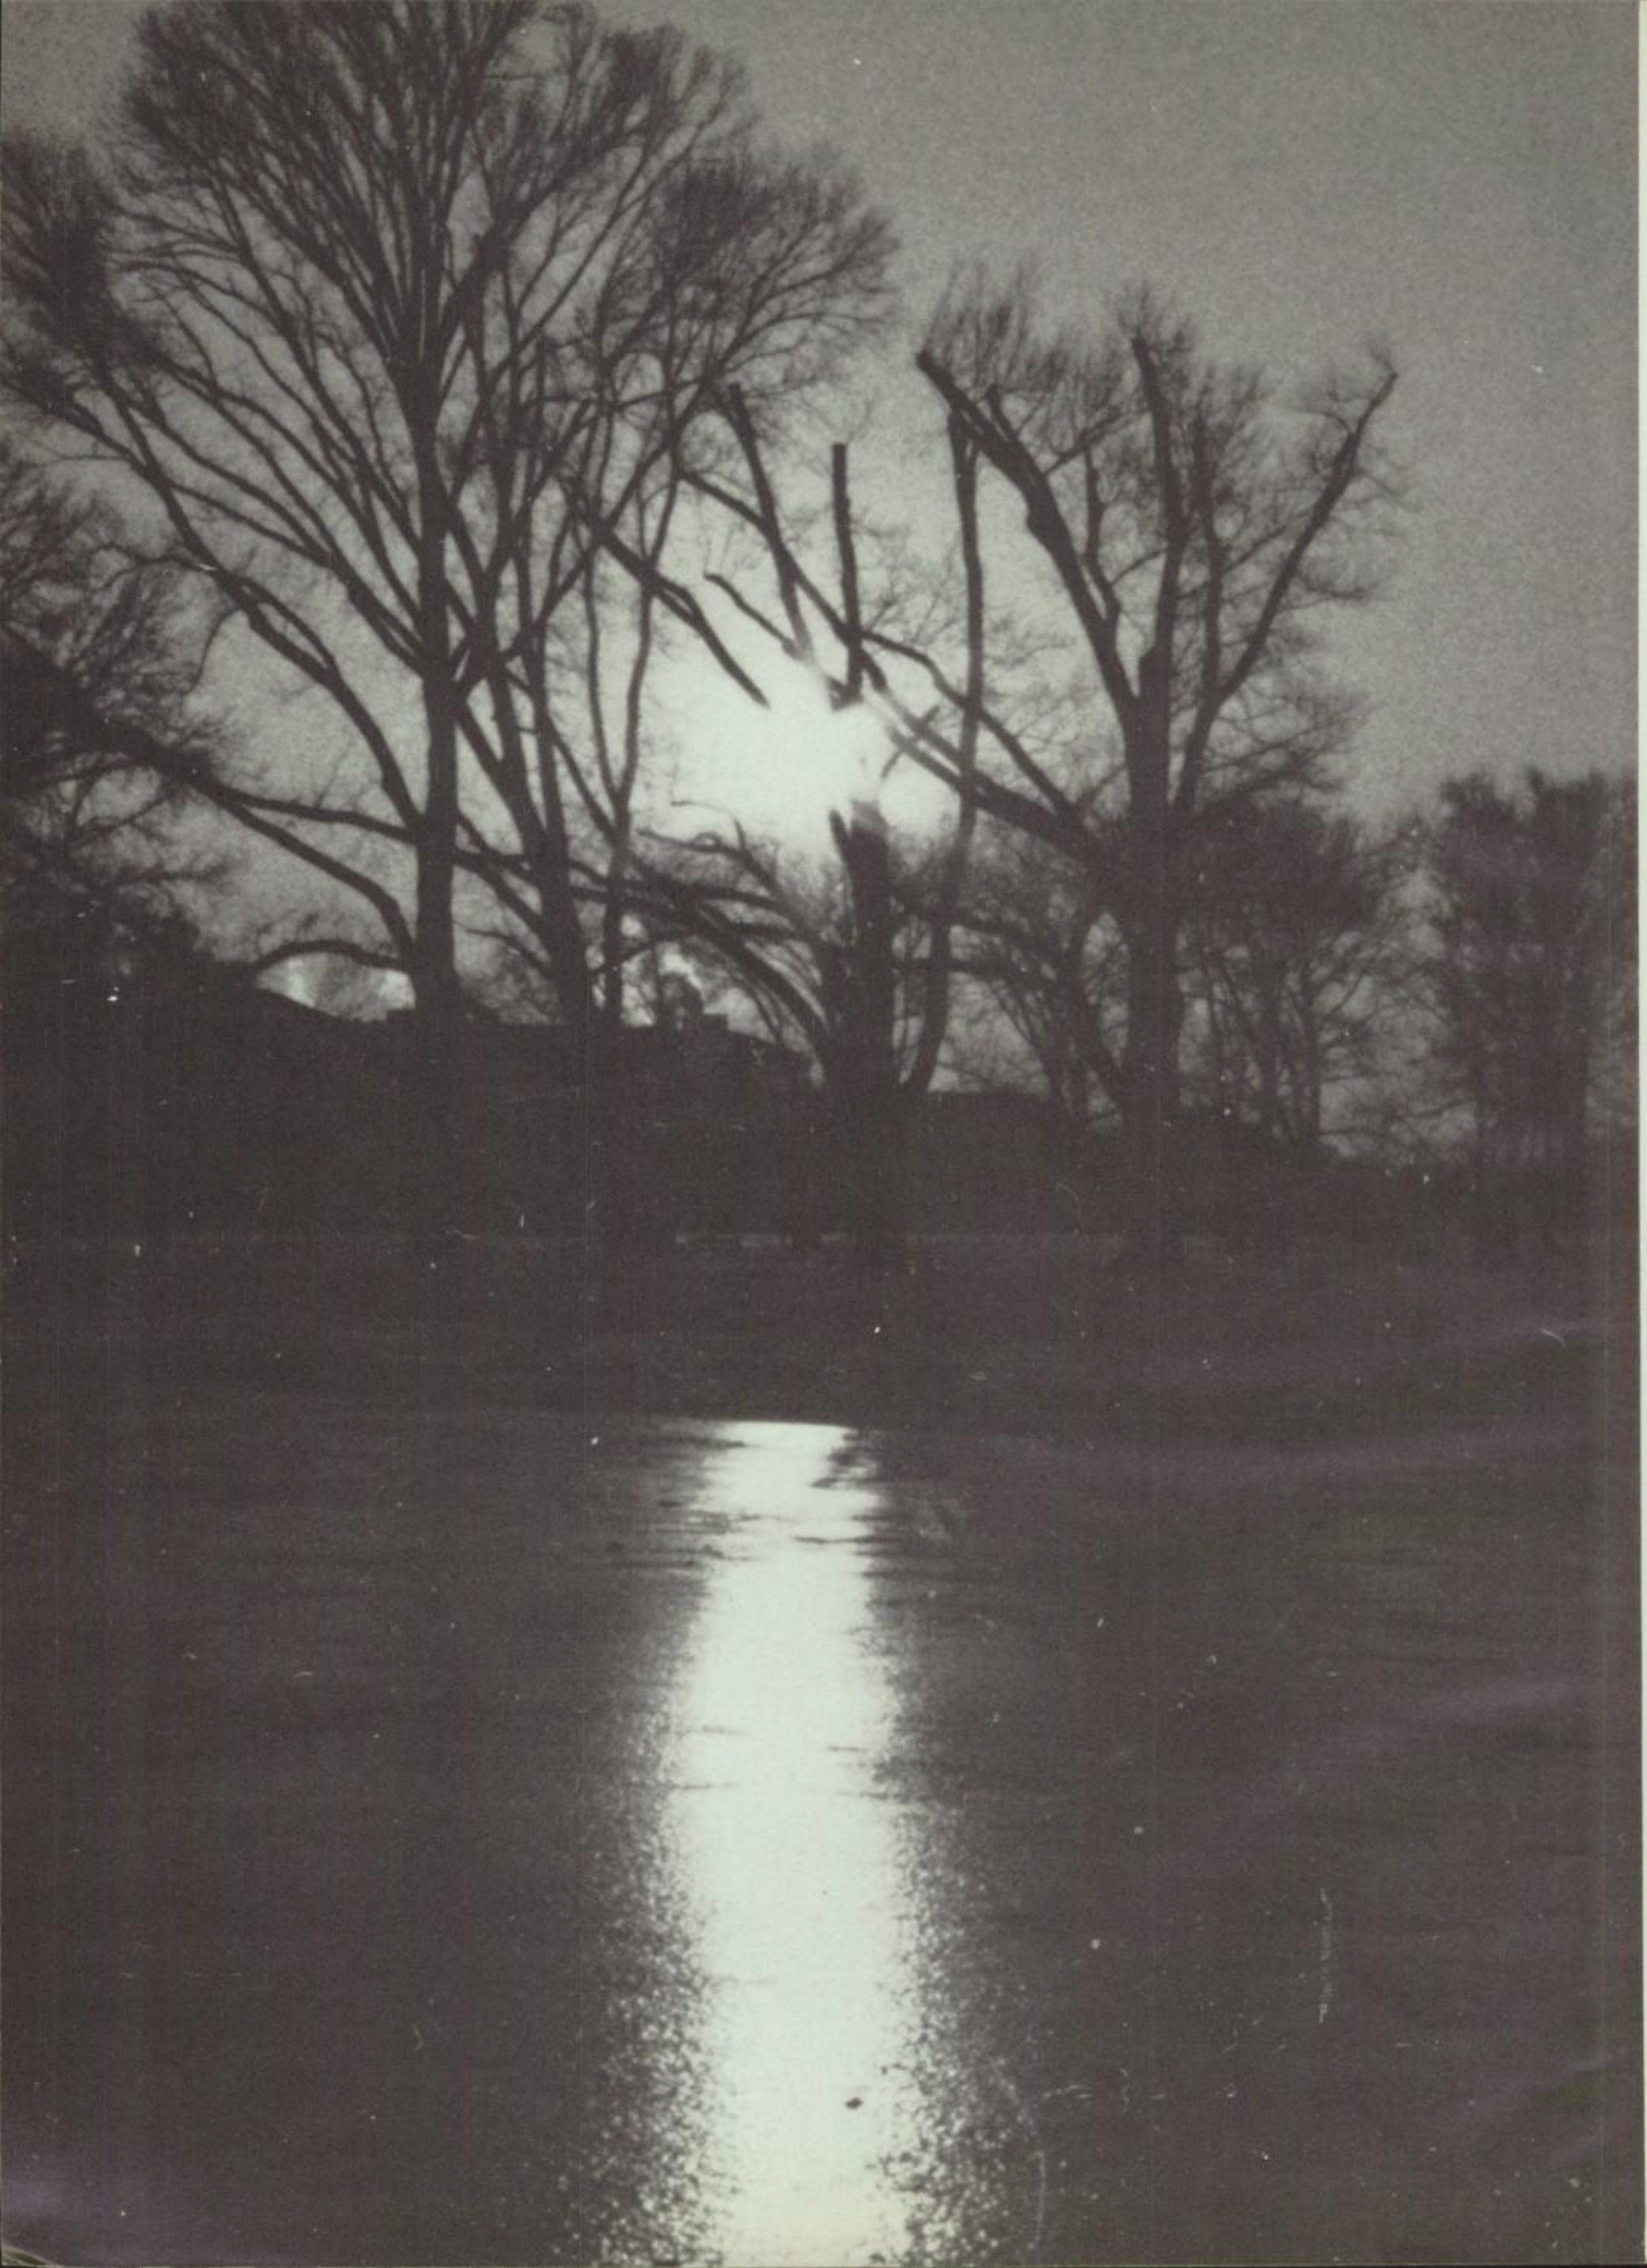
Finally I wish to thank our advisor Mrs. Betty Hillerman for her indispensable help and advice. Thanks again.

Mary F. Rice, editor-in-chief









Dear Shelly
To a really good friend whom I respect and admire. I wish you much success in the

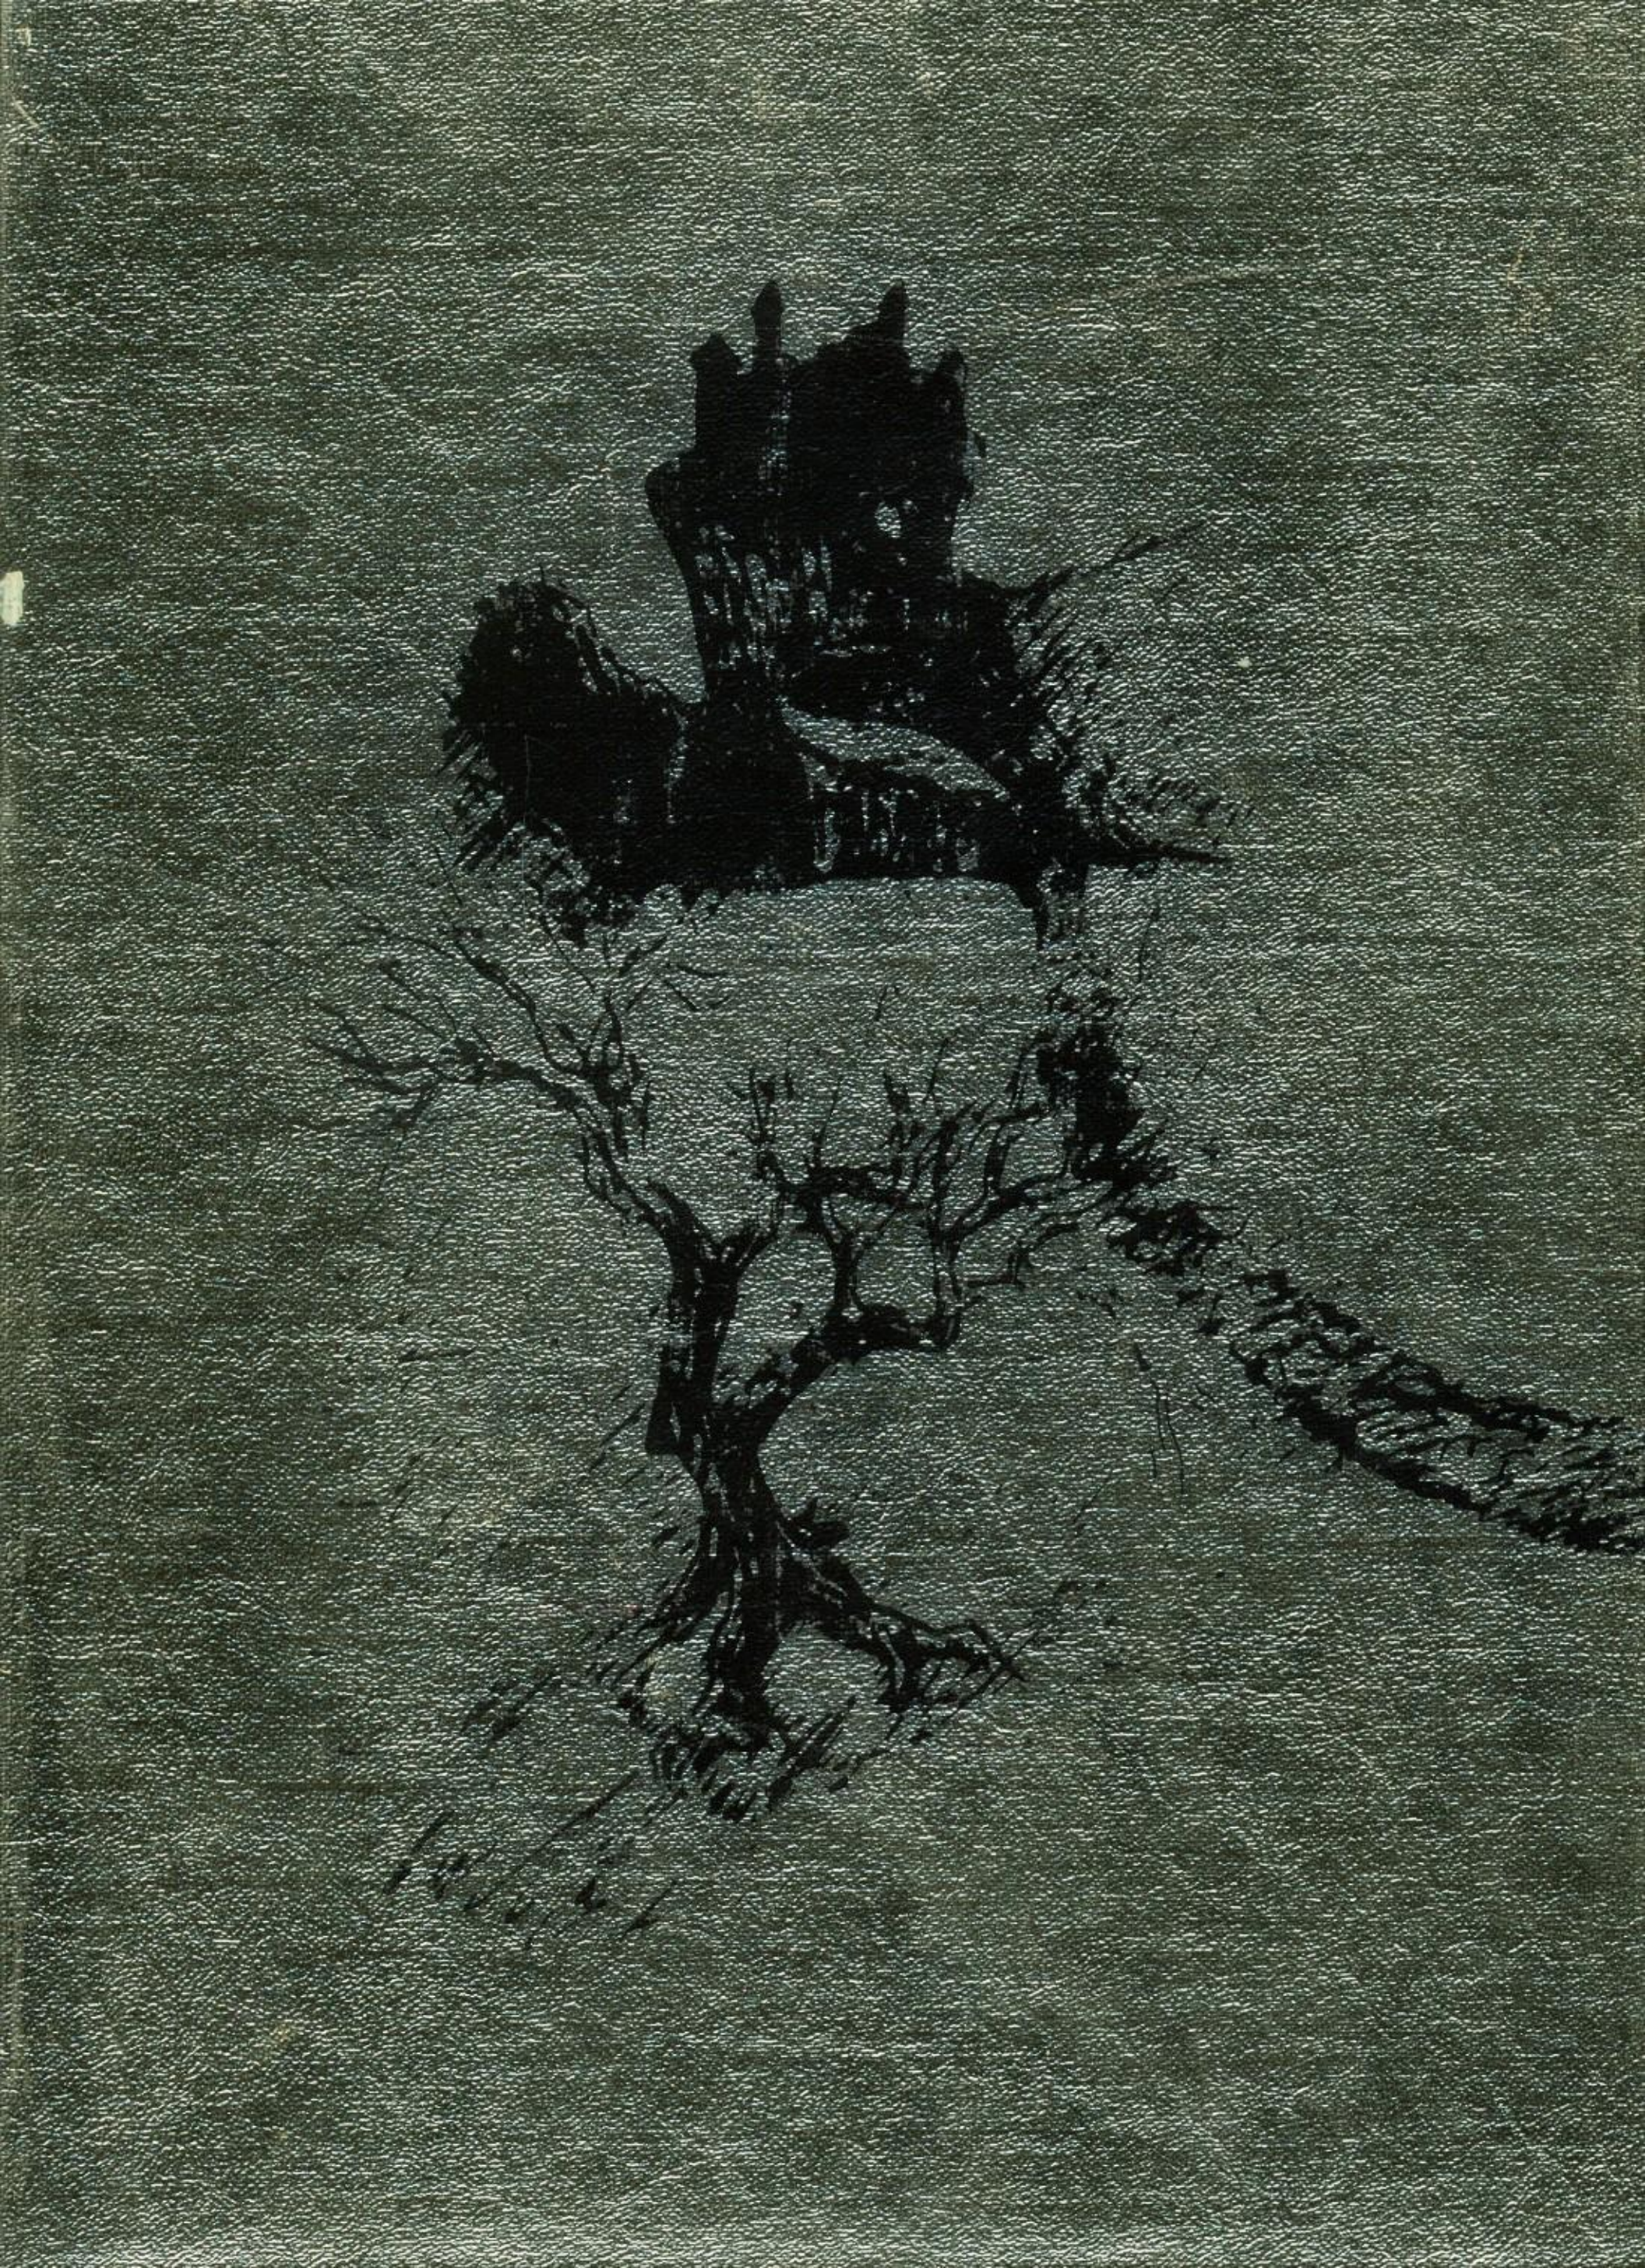
Sigmunds -

You're a really nice girl who's just a little strange. You're really sweet so stay that way. Keep being crazy too, it adds color to your life (I should know, right?) I hope you have a wonderful, happy life. Good luck in everything you do and have fun doing everything (which I'm sure you will). Remember me always. I'll remember you. And now a note to end with: La, La, Hm, Hmm


Love,
Pam
